

Iron County, Wisconsin is looking for a Networking and Technical Support Specialist

Core Responsibilities:

Provide user access and support through workstation setup, software installations and account administration.

Help keep infrastructure up to date by performing system upgrades with thorough research and cost analysis.

Provide employee end user support for workstations, personal devices, printers and peripherals.

Develop and maintain centralized documentation of IT infrastructure and policies.

Be able to work alongside and with Computer Doctors employees, Iron Counties IT Contractor.

Qualifications:

Associate's degree or higher with a focus on information technology is the minimum qualification.

Strong teamwork and communication skills.

Workstation Desktop support.

Printer and Peripheral Device Support.

Phone System Administration.

Salary is $35,000 - $50,000 per year depending on background and experience, plus generous benefit package.

Send resume, cover letter and references to:

Iron County Clerk

300 Taconite Street, Suite 101

Hurley, WI 54534

Deadline for application is December 04, 2019

Iron County is an Equal Opportunity Employer