Treasurer's report : The balance in the checkbook is $10,379.42 Joe reported that just 75cents short of $10,000 is from the bowling alleys alone. He also reported that the accountant is coming to help him get the taxes taken care of.

FUND RAISER REPORT:

Pool league April 11

Viet Nam Vets April 25

Spring Craft Fair April 18

Halloween Party, October 31. This year we will have a 1 to 3 PM party for the children and an adult party from 7 to 9 with music, costumes, etc

There are two Christmas parties booked - The Harma party and the Hoeft party

Two craft fairs are booked

Possible homecoming dance on January 24th

Prom plans are still up in the air

Dorothy showed us a photo of the Christmas party. There were 150 children there.

Dorothy mentioned that thanks to the Scotti's business in the building, the place is always warm, smells delicious, is clean and ready to show to any prospective renters. She spends Tuesday afternoons cleaning and welcomes anyone who would like to show up to help her.

Dorothy will pursue a fundraiser featuring Silver Express as the entertainment after a family dinner with Scotti catering.

The matter of pizza ovens for the bowling alley hasn't seen any results. Karen and Dorothy will continue to look further.

Six acoustic panels have been installed for $1000 total, manufacture and installation. Bill and Joe said 20 more would be optimal. Motion was made, seconded and passed to order twelve more panels. The next batch will be bigger panels and the ones already hung will be moved to another spot.

NEW BUSINESS: Mimi will be working downstairs next week. Bill and Joe will finish the window surrounds in the bowling alley,.

This summer will be spent working on the outside of the building.

Joe Pinardi complimented the committee on the progress made on restoration and on the increased use of the building.

The next meeting will be on Monday, February 16th, upstairs at the Memorial Bldg.

Motion to adjourn made, seconded and passed at 6:20.

Respectfully submitted. Pat DiLuna
